The ADVENTURES of SAMMY

the Wonder Dachshund

SPECIAL NEW OFFER

Sammy's Last Week in Charleston

Sammy on Safari

Local author and illustrator Jonathan Miller will be reading his books, sharing original art, and discussing the writing process with elementary schools in the area this week. He'll be sharing two books in his Adventures of Sammy the Wonder Dachshund series: Sammy's Last Week in Charleston and Sammy on Safari, a colorful tale about the importance of helping others. Both books are illustrated using layers of construction paper and tiny pieces of card stock, a process that can take up to 30 hours per page. You can see examples of his art at sammydogbooks.com.

Mr. Miller has read to more than 150,000 students, has been featured in many publications as well as on ETV, and was commissioned to do art for celebrity chef Paula Deen.

For more information, contact Jonathan Miller at sammydogbooks.com
